

DEEP Context

Task: Analyze a primary source using the DEEP Context strategy.

Instructions:

1. Read the document from beginning to end & explain what the text is about in 1-2 sentences.
2. Using the reading (and additional resources, like the internet, if your teacher allows), scan the text to answer the questions in the DEEP context chart below.
3. With more knowledge, re-read the text.
4. Answer the questions in the final table to reflect on what you've learned.

After your initial read of the text, explain what it is about in 1-2 sentences:

DEEP Context

Scan the text and answer the following questions

	Guiding Question	Your response
Document Creation	Who wrote this & when?
Events	What events (global, national, or local) were happening around the time of this document's creation?
Expected Audience	Who would have read this?
Purpose	Why was this made?

After re-reading the text, explain what it is about in 1-2 sentences in relation to the DEEP context you identified in the table above:
