

Reading Around a Topic

Task: Use the internet to find out what other people are saying about the topic of your argument.

Instructions:

Use reliable internet sources, and read at least four recent articles/essays about your topic. Use the organizer below to record what you learn.

- What perspective is shared about the topic?
- Does the article/essay include anything you didn't know or hadn't thought about before?
- What questions arise for you as you read the article/essay?
- Does the article/essay prompt you to do further research to fill gaps in your knowledge or understanding?
